Do It Again

Jay Ferguson

No, I don't mind if you go too far
Take advantage of me
You can drink my wine, drive my car
Baby, you can do just as you please

You can tie my telephone up
You can wear my clothes
Take my money, go and fly down to Mexico
But before you go

Just do it again
Like you did before
Don't you ever dare stop
Do it again
Like you did before
Don't you ever dare stop

'Cause nothing really matters much to me
The only one I ever want is you

So go ahead and wreck my bed
'Cause it can be replaced
I think it's neat when you tear those sheets
And throw those pillows all over the place

But when the lights come down at night
And another crazy day is through
Everything that I have is yours
But I want one thing from you

Just do it again
Like you did before
Don't you ever dare stop
Do it again
I want to know there's more
Don't you ever dare stop

'Cause nothing really matters much to me
The only one I ever want is you
Just do it again

Don't you ever dare stop
Don't you ever dare stop
Don't you ever dare stop
Don't you ever dare stop

She run me up like a fever
She lay me out like a feast
Stretch me thin as an alibi
I never get a minute's peace

But if I'm lying all alone
Just waiting for the man to play
I hit the light and I jump on the telephone
This is what I say

Just do it again

Like you did before
Do it again

'Cause nothing really matters much to me (Nothing really matters much to Me)
The only one I ever want is you (The only one I ever want is you)
Nothing really matters much to me (Nothing really matters much to me)
The only one I ever want is you (The only one I ever want is you)
Just do it again
