

No Secrets

Jay Ferguson

Well, I heard some people talking at another table
And they said that you had designs on my girl
Gonna add her to your stable
Well, I'm not surprised to see you hanging 'round with my baby
But you can't buy her time, she isn't that kind
If you think I don't know, you're crazy
Because

She tells me her secrets
She tells me no lies
And nobody knows my baby
Any better than I, I
So take all your bright ideas
Go and kiss 'em goodbye
Kiss 'em goodbye

So tell me how long you've been standing there in the shadows
Planning your crimes, rehearsing your lies
And waiting at the windows
If you think I'd let her go, then you really couldn't know
Just how good she's been to me
You could spend your days and nights trying to get her what she likes
But I know what she needs
Because

She tells me her secrets
She tells me no lies
And nobody knows my baby
Any better than I, I
So take all your bright ideas
Go and kiss 'em goodbye
Kiss 'em goodbye

No secrets
No secrets

She tells me her secrets
She tells me no lies
And nobody knows my baby
Any better than I, I

She tells me her secrets
She tells me no lies
And nobody knows my baby
Any better than I, I

She tells me her secrets
She wears no disguise
And nobody knows my baby
Any better than I, I

She tells me her secrets
