Because Of You

Jay-Jay Johanson

```
I just turened and walked away...
Baby, just because of you, I'm so confused
I saw your face through the dancing crowd
You closed your eyes when you kissed the guy
I didn't fight for your love tonight
I should have stayed but
I just turned and walked away...
Baby, just because of you, I'm so confused
Once again on the stage at night
All alone blinded by the light
I saw your face in the dancing crowd
I should have stayed but
I just turned and walked away...
Baby, just because of you, I'm so confused
I didn't fight for your love tonight
I should have stayed but
I just turned and walked away...
