

My Mother's Grave

Jay-Jay Johanson

Sorry for the times I had to leave you alone In all the situations when I couldn't come home Sorry for the things I said, I was not my self It's getting late and I just wish I was somewhere else

I should have brought apologies and flowers Instead I left and I was gone for hours

I understand if you were disappointed last night So many times I tried but couldn't set things right Some times it's not enough with poor excuses But I just don't know the correct words to use

And I promise and I swear on my mother's grave It never gonna happen again

I practice every night that now my vision's too blur And nothing comes out right, it's just them I hear that occur Sorry for the times I had to leave you alone In all the situations when I couldn't come home

I should have brought apologies and flowers Instead I left and I was gone for hours And I promise and swear on my mother's grave It never gonna happen again And I promise and swear on my mother's grave It never gonna happen again
