

Rush

Jay-Jay Johanson

I don't wanna rush you now If you need sometime to think I can wait another year But I can't promise anything

I guess you have a reason girl I will try to understand Maybe I 'm not good enough But i will do the best I can

I don't wanna rush you now I don't wanna rush you now

Everybody's telling me I should take a good advice But I better let you know It doesn't come as a surprise

I'm tryin' to get through to you A conversation on the phone I know it might sound silly but After all I wish I'd known

I'm tryin' to get through to you I'm tryin' to get through to you

Oh honey I just wanna let you know That I never gonna let you go Oh honey come a little closer now Come on, don't stop Well I guess you feel the same way too

I know you're still in love with me I can see it in your eyes You say you have forgotten me But I'm sure it's only lies

I don't wanna rush you now If you need sometime to think I can wait another year But i can't promise anything

I don't wanna rush you now I don't wanna rush you now
