Jay-Jay Johanson

When the morning comes And the night is done I will be far gone without that trace

She will find the note I left her on the desk I've left this gi rl so many times before

In this world that we know There's nothing that could make A de cent woman of a girl like you

In this world that we know There's nothing that could make A de
cent woman of a girl like you

I wish she'd give a call To say hello that's all I wonder if sh e wonders where I am

She's got her new friends now I pray to god she's fine I've tri ed to tell her time and time again

In this world that we know There's nothing that could make A de
cent woman of a girl like you

cent woman of a girl like you

Already kissed goodbye Promise please don't cry Bring me Bourbo n and a hancer chief

In this world that we know There's nothing that could make A de
cent woman of a girl like you

cent woman of a girl like you
