I spit fire queen of the empire no denying
I'm the flyest anything that I desire its mine
Its just a matter of time no need to battle with rhymes
I got a hammer that'll shatter your mind your strategy badly designed
I can tell by your moves and I can tell
That you shook by the look on your crew
But y'all don't really want it with us my team is full of hitters
And I'm considered one of the illest femare spitters on the planet
The haters can't stand it but the fans demand it
And they manage to never take us for granted
And so I show love back and bare my soul on the track sing
My heart out with raps so that y'all can know that I appreciate the love as well as the hate cause
I continue making hits that'll sell out the gates

And I'll continue rocking shows that'll sell out dates
And continue to tell the snakes to stay the hell out my face ...
I'm saying
