

Never Again

Jay Park

Every time I chose
I kick it with my bros
Baby girl I'm sorry
I kept you wait on my phone
Never again, never again, no
Never again, never again, no
Never again, never again, no
No, no

One too many cold nights
It took a lot to realize
I know I let you out of sight
Girl I had to clear my mind
Now I can focus on you
You got my attention and it's undivided
I only want you
One hundred percent
Girl, let it undecided

Now don't you leave my thoughts
Can't imagine livin' life without you
Although the seasons change
I'll never ever switch up on you
I'll never be the one that gives you any pain or scar, yeah
I'm always beside you

Every time I chose
I kick it with my bros
Baby girl I'm sorry
I kept you wait on my phone
Never again, never again, no
Never again, never again, no
Never again, never again, no
No, no

All I want is to make you proud of me
You should know that I could sacrifice everything for you
Never felt this way about anyone
Only you
Nobody, body else
Promise to give you truth and honesty
Promise to deliver you all of me
This is my promise to you and only you

Every time I chose
I kick it with my bros
Baby girl I'm sorry
I kept you wait on my phone
Never again, never again, no
Never again, never again, no
Never again, never again, no
No, no

Never again, never again, no
Never again, never again, no
Never again, never again, no
No, no

Now don't you leave my thoughts
Can't imagine livin' life without you
I'll never ever switch up on you
I'll never be the one that gives you any pain or scar, yeah
I'm always beside you
