

On Fire

Jay Park

I got your picture, put it on my wall
Got the type of body make a man, just wanna fall
Been fuckin' with ya for way too long
But every time I'm around ya swear, I don't exist at all

I'll set myself on fire just to keep you warm
I'll be your lighthouse shine in a perfect storm
But you treat me like I'm nobody
Like I'm just a friend
I'll set myself on fire just to keep you warm

You're so pretentious
You're so damn loud
So tell me why I can't keep my cool
Whenever you're around
I can't go pretending
That you don't turn me on
Too many times I wonder how
It'd be to love you down

I'll set myself on fire just to keep you warm
I'll be your lighthouse shine in a perfect storm
But you treat me like I'm nobody
Like I'm just a friend
I'll set myself on fire just to keep you warm

I'll set myself on fire just to keep you warm
I'll be your lighthouse shine in a perfect storm
But you treat me like I'm nobody
Like I'm just a friend
I'll set myself on fire just to keep you warm
