

God Has His Purpose

Jay R

Why do I stumble and fall?
Why do I fail?
It hurts so bad
Life is treating me so hard

Help me, my Lord
Tears fall and linger in my heart

I will keep my faith
For He wants the best from me
No, I won't give up
For God loves me and has His purpose

Things may not come my way
Success may be far away
But I'll keep my feet on ground
'Cause God is always around

Help me, my Lord
Tears fall and linger in my heart

I will keep my faith
For He wants the best from me
No, I won't give up
For God loves me and has His purpose

Whatever comes my way it is His will
I'll always be thankful every day

I will keep my faith
For He wants the best from me
No, I won't give up
For God loves me and has His purpose

I will keep my faith
For He wants the best from me
No, I won't give up
For God loves me and has His purpose
