

Changing

Jay Sean

Changing (changing)
Just how much I like changing

I've been thinking all night
Something about you drives me crazy
I've been drinking all night
Pick up the phone and call me maybe
Things ain't going all right
Been changing like it's fall
I guess the fault is all mine
Is this the final straw

It's all right, it's all right
Every time I text you
You're online, no reply
Maybe I just let you
Waste my time, waste my time
Maybe you're the one that I should lose
Tell me what to do, tell me, yeah

Does it ever drive you crazy
Just how much I like changing
Does it ever drive you crazy
Just how much I like changing

Every night is fight night
That's all we've been doing lately
Fuck that love at first sight
They all think we're so amazing
Do you even hear me
I'm talking to the wall
We ain't seeing clearly
So what's the point at all

It's all right, it's all right
Every time I text you
You're online, no reply
Why did I let you
Into my life, into my life
Maybe you're the one that I should lose
Tell me what to do, tell me, yeah

Does it ever drive you crazy
Just how much I like changing
Does it ever drive you crazy
Just how much I like changing

Does it ever drive you crazy
Just how much I like changing
