

Take That Off

Jay Sean

Hey girl, how could you don't own it
I see that you took your time to please me
Don't get me wrong, I'm loving it all

Look at those heels
Loving your dress
Rocking that Chanel
Girl that shade is sexy
I just can't lie over those tighs
Everything is right then, there's one other thing I'd like

I don't wanna see those clothes on
They look better on the floor, yeah
Girl, you know there ain't no secrets
You look so much better, girl
When you wearing nothing, nothing, nothing at all
When you wearing nothing, nothing, nothing at all

Baby take that off off off
Baby take that off off off
Baby take that off off off

That's what I'm talking about
You know what it is
Come and put that body on me
It's so good
You can take my clothes off too

I'm loving your breath
Grab on my neck
Let me put my lips girl all over your chest then
Tasting your skin, it's driving me wild
I can't get enough from you

I don't wanna see those clothes on
They look better on the floor, yeah
Girl, you know there ain't no secrets
You look so much better, girl
When you wearing nothing, nothing, nothing at all
When you wearing nothing, nothing, nothing at all

Baby take that off off off
Baby take that off off off
Baby take that off off off

So take it up
Higher girl
You set me on
Fire girl
Don't need nothing girl
'Cause you alone
Know exactly how to turn me on
To turn me on, to turn me on There's one other thing I'd like

I don't wanna see those clothes on
They look better on the floor, yeah

Girl, you know there ain't no secrets
You look so much better, girl
When you worry nothing, nothing, nothing at all
When you worry nothing, nothing, nothing at all

Baby take that off off off
Baby take that off off off
Baby take that off off off
