Why Why How Why

Jay Sean

Asking how we got here?
You don't want to go there, my dear, my dear
Always wanted new things
Forgot that it was no strings

And I was supposed to have it together
But I let you in, I let you in (Yeah)
And we were supposed to be just whatever, but we still fell in, we still fel l in

Got to, got to far many issues
Got to, got to far from my mission
Got to, got to far from my vision
Got to, got to stop reminiscing

I don't want to hurt nobody
I want you to live life
Just tell me that you'll be alright
'Cause you don't know how much I worry
Know too much about me, you might run and tell somebody

Tell me why you so surprised to hear me tell you "That it's done"?
Why you so surprised to hear me tell you "That it's done"?
How you so surprised to hear me tell you "That it's done"?
Why you so surprised to hear me tell you "That it's done"?

Can't pause the emotions, rewind all the moments
But we can press stop
Don't think I don't know that
Both know I got a woman
But you hate that part

And I was supposed to have it together
But I let you in, I let you in (Yeah)
And we were supposed to be just whatever, but we still fell in, we still fel

Got to, got to far many issues
Got to, got to far from my mission
Got to, got to far from my vision
Got to, got to stop reminiscing

I don't want to hurt nobody
I want you to live life
Just tell me that you'll be alright
'Cause you don't know how much I worry
Know too much about me, you might run and tell somebody

Tell me why you so surprised to hear me tell you "That it's done"?
Why you so surprised to hear me tell you "That it's done"?
How you so surprised to hear me tell you "That it's done"?
Why you so surprised to hear me tell you "That it's done"?

Tell me why you so surprised to hear me tell you "That it's done"?
Why you so surprised to hear me tell you "That it's done"?
How you so surprised to hear me tell you "That it's done"?
Why you so surprised to hear me tell you "That it's done"?
