Nighttime Drive

Jay Som

I'm sinking in my bed
We're leaving town tomorrow
It's only for the memories
So used to feeling numb

Shifting through the nighttime drive
We'll be alright

Been watching hours pass
Inside cars with no glass
Constructing shallow dreams of Shoplifting at the Whole Foods

My baby says I'm growing tough
"Don't let others define you"
I'm sticking to the script now
I'll let my body win

Shifting through the nighttime drive
It'll be a while
