

Bury Me With Bourbon

Jay Webb

Bury me with bourbon next to a moonshine still
I'm hurtin' now, and I always will
'Fore the dirt's in, don't forget a bottle of the beam
'Cause everything I did was for her, not me

Burnin' your memory in this cigarette
I smoke like a chimney and drink like a fish
Wish you were with me, aw, damn, I regret
Lettin' you slip right through my fingertips

I been drinkin' just so I can get by
Every single night feels like the end of my life
The liquor or the pain, it wasn't hard to decide
And baby I don't wanna die but if I die tonight

Bury me with bourbon next to a moonshine still
'Cause I hurt, and I bet that I always will
'Fore the dirt's in, don't forget a bottle of the beam
'Cause everything I did was for her, not me

Bury me with bourbon next to a moonshine still
I'm hurtin' now and I always will
Bury me with bourbon, don't forget a bottle of the beam
'Cause everything I did was for her, not me

Bury me with bourbon, it might get you out of my head
It might finally help get me some fuckin' rest
'Cause when I lay down, memories play in this bed
Girl, ever since the day that you left I've been

I been drinkin' just so I can get by
Every single night feels like the end of my life
The liquor or the pain, it wasn't hard to decide
And baby I don't wanna die but if I die tonight

Bury me with bourbon next to a moonshine still
'Cause I hurt, and I bet that I always will
'Fore the dirt's in, don't forget a bottle of the beam
'Cause everything I did was for her, not me

Bury me with bourbon next to a moonshine still
I'm hurtin' now and I always will
Bury me with bourbon, don't forget a bottle of the beam
'Cause everything I did was for her, not me

Bury me with bourbon, ooh-ooh, yeah
Bury me with bourbon, oh-yeah
Bury me, bury me

Bury me with bourbon next to a moonshine still
'Cause I hurt, and I bet that I always will
'Fore the dirt's in, don't forget a bottle of the beam
'Cause everything I did was for her, not me

Bury me with bourbon next to a moonshine still
I'm hurtin' now and I always will
Bury me with bourbon, don't forget a bottle of the beam

'Cause everything I did was for her, not me

Bury me with bourbon
