

Saturday Night

Jay Webb

I told her kiss my ass I'm headed straight to the bar
I took the keys to her run down beat up car
And I drove until I found a neon sign in the dark
At the only place that's ever gonna heal these scars
From that bitch, that damn bitch

She's wastin' tears I'm drinkin' beers on a Saturday night
She's home alone I'm backin' in a Jon boat
I'm catchin' fish she's catchin' feelings for some other guy
I know she thinks I give a damn but I don't
She's wastin' tears I'm drinkin' beers on a Saturday night
She's wastin' tears I'm drinkin' beers on a Saturday night

Well, the liquor took control of me and now I don't care
I'd rather be out on the lake ripping lips with a beer in my hand
Give a damn about what she did
'Cause she'll always be that bitch
That damn bitch

She's wastin' tears I'm drinkin' beers on a Saturday night
She's home alone I'm backin' in a Jon boat
I'm catchin' fish she's catchin' feelings for some other guy
I know she thinks I give a damn but I don't
She's wastin' tears I'm drinkin' beers on a Saturday night
She's wastin' tears I'm drinkin' beers on a Saturday night

She's wastin' tears I'm drinkin' beers on a Saturday night
She's home alone I'm backin' in a Jon boat
I'm catchin' fish she's catchin' feelings for some other guy
I know she thinks I give a damn but I don't
She's wastin' tears I'm drinkin' beers on a Saturday night
She's wastin' tears I'm drinkin' beers on a Saturday night
