Make up, and break up
That's all we do
Then we have sex, next thing you know
Everything is cool
Best of Both Worlds! Holla at your boy

Like we always do about this time Uh-huh, yeah
I know what you doin ma
Tryin to get in an argument with me so I can do my mad thing, you want me to do my mad thing I understand - c'mon!

Seems we're always arguing, but Right after the arguing we have, sex And somehow it's the best, yes Seems we're always arguing, but Right after the arguing we have, sex And somehow it's the best girl

Gangsta love, gangsta love

Think about it while the streets you roam
It's Dom P and Army in the fridge when you get home
Sex is always better fresh off a vendetta
We break up or break you off then we right back together
Then this brand new leathers and Caroline Aurera
Marijuana, white wine, somewhere under the weather
Like we sick but we fine, shit we couldn't feel better
Just some sunshine in mind lookin fine as ever who got a mouth on her, woo, she put some words together
Sometimes'll make a nigga wanna leave, but when we make up
