

Your Love

JAY1

First night you were with me all night long
Second night, why you leave me on my own?
Saturday and now I'm kicking back in my zone
I need your love, need your love

I need your love and I need your touch
I'm missing the days it was me and you
Late night stu you was were showing support
Like, you didn't wanna see me lose
I don't know why your girls keep bitching
It ain't just me, know you feel it too
Onto the kid there moving weird
I'm starting to think that they leak my tunes

I can't really tell if it's love or hate
I'm sat in my crib with a bottle of Hennessy
Really deeping all my memories
Pick up your phone and tell me what you're telling me
Got me singing all these melodies
Airing my calls and moving like a enemy
Baby girl, just call me back, you got me out here reminiscing on our-

First night you were with me all night long
Second night, why you leave me on my own?
Saturday and now I'm kicking back in my zone
I need your love, need your love

First night you were with me all night long
Second night, why you leave me on my own?
Saturday and now I'm kicking back in my zone
I need your love, need your love

Two bad bad b's wanna come link me
So I'm sending a driver to COV
They can't stay round cos I'm DTB
Might book a hotel cos I be lowkey
Blow there backs then I G2G
Head straight to the crib they can see me leave
10 missed girls but it's not from the girl
That I want fuck that they can leave me be

You're online but you're not replying
I'm kissing my teeth, pissed off and I'm sighing
I'm tryna move on but you keep on reminding me
Calling my phone but you keep on declining
Maybe I gotta let go
Is it finished or is it just timing
You're rolling your eyes when I'm calling your phone

First night you were with me all night long
Second night, why you leave me on my own?
Saturday and now I'm kicking back in my zone
I need your love, need your love

First night you were with me all night long
Second night, why you leave me on my own?
Saturday and now I'm kicking back in my zone

I need your love, need your love
