

Ain't Been The Same

JayDaYoungan

Ain't been the same
I ain't even smile today
Couldn't even get high today
Shit ain't been the same, shit ain't been the same
I almost cried
I almost cried today
(HeartBeatz on the track)

Shit ain't been the same, shit ain't been the same
Shit ain't been the same, shit ain't been the same
I ain't even smile today, I almost cried today
Couldn't even roll up and get high today, couldn't even get high today
Ain't been the same, shit ain't been the same
Shit ain't been the same, shit ain't been the same
I ain't even smile today, I almost cried today
Couldn't even roll up and get high today, couldn't even get high today

I been lookin' for fame, I'ma tell you how I feel, I'ma go and keep it real, see the fake when I look in your face I'm a real big dog, I ain't never fall off, I just sat back and took me a break
[?], we shot at it all, you won't even pay me
I'll admit, through it all, there's still no flaws, that's why they hate me
I be tryin' but it's so hard to smile
Momma tell me, "Change your ways, see, Jay, you're livin' too wild"
Free 1106 out the gates, fuck it, let's take it to trial
They tryna bury me with a Drac', they think they layin' me down

Shit ain't been the same, shit ain't been the same
Shit ain't been the same, shit ain't been the same
I ain't even smile today, I almost cried today
Couldn't even roll up and get high today, couldn't even get high today
Ain't been the same, shit ain't been the same
Shit ain't been the same, shit ain't been the same
I ain't even smile today, I almost cried today
Couldn't even roll up and get high today, couldn't even get high today
