

Change

JayDaYoungan

Everything change when they see you doin' better
Cut throat, these niggas changin' like the weather
I'm prepared for the worst, but prayin' for the better
Talkin' to God while I'm walkin' with the devil
The Glock and the K, them be the weapons that I creep with
You play games, I set blames, make me put you to sleep quick
These pussy niggas changed for some fame, that ain't no G shit
You say my name, bitch I'm bringin' pain to who you sleep with

These niggas broke, ain't go no bread but on some beef shit
One vehicle, two niggas, just might hop out with three sticks
Business ain't no place for feelings, they be on some weak shit
Turn on the beat, every track I feast, yeah I eat shit
Stay in the streets, Famous the only one I be with
We came up together so that's the only one I eat with
I keep my eyes open, they ask me, no I ain't see shit
Right now my mind focused, got knowledge, you better keep it
Posted up on the block with my niggas
Lonely ahk and we all got a pistol
Ruffway, whole team be official
Might send my lil youngin to get you
Free Ruff in the smooth, yeah I miss him
I'm focused right now on a mission
Yeah they be talkin' but I never listen
I'm chasin' the bag, give a fuck 'bout attention

You know
Fuck attention, it was always money over fame, yeah
I'm on my way up nigga, two times

Everything change when they see you doin' better
Cut throat, these niggas changin' like the weather
I'm prepared for the worst, but prayin' for the better
Talkin' to God while I'm walkin' with the devil
The Glock and the K, them be the weapons that I creep with
You play games, I set blames, make me put you to sleep quick
These pussy niggas changed for some fame, that ain't no G shit
You say my name, bitch I'm bringin' pain to who you sleep with
