

Constantly Working

JayDaYoungan

I'm constantly working I guess you could say it's worth it
I'm so up I'm scared to look down (scared to look down)
They talking yea but I can't hear a sound
Fuck next somebody tell em I got now
And I set every goal to achieve it
I had to grind hard they ain't believe me
Fuck love I can't do it you can keep it
(Fuck love I can't do it you can keep it)

They say I changed over the fame but I'm constantly working
Can't fall victim to the gang until something will hurt ya
Just looking for better days swear I'm constantly searching
I got a heart that's full of pain fuck love that shit worthless
Attitude get real rude and I throw back them perkys
Want a Maybach One day imma let back the curtains
Can't trust a soul in this business errbody dirty
Fuck next my time now and I know that's for certain
I set a goal so I gotta reach it
Imma do whatever just to achieve it
Fuck love swear you can keep it
They tell you something but they don't really mean it
Can't help nobody because they get to greedy
Can't take a L yea we undefeated
Sipping the lean and it got me leaning
Mix it with the xans and it got me dreaming

I'm constantly working I guess you could say it's worth it
I'm so up I'm scared to look down (scared to look down)
They talking yea but I can't hear a sound
Fuck next somebody tell em I got now
And I set every goal to achieve it
I had to grind hard they ain't believe me
Fuck love I can't do it you can keep it
(Fuck love I can't do it you can keep it)
