

Dirty Soul

JayDaYoungan

(Aztro in the cut)
(Tuned up)
(Shout out my nigga Synco)

Want you to tell the truth to me even though it hurt to know
And I'll look back before I leave because it hurt to go
I'm deep in these streets, need you to clean my dirty soul
I thought my past wouldn't bother me, but that's what hurt the most

Break your heart, you better not put your trust in dirty hoes
I cleaned the scene, but my shooter got a dirty pole
Don't leave a witness on the scene, that's a murder quote
Witnessed my man turn to a fiend, that shit hurt my soul

And I need to change the way that I'm living
I've been losing faith, it been away for a minute
Pain all inside, I get high just to kill it
You changed on me, why? It's your vibe, I can feel it (HeartBeatz on the track)

I tried giving you chance after chance, but you lied
I keep a smile to try to hide what's inside
Finally realized my biggest problem is my pride
Fucked up in the head, can't feel my legs
I just wish I could spread my wings and fly
And get my rest, I won't be scared
I know one day we all gon' die

Want you to tell the truth to me even though it hurt to know
And I'll look back before I leave because it hurt to go
I'm deep in these streets, need you to clean my dirty soul
I thought my past wouldn't bother me, but that's what hurt the most

Break your heart, you better not put your trust in dirty hoes
I cleaned the scene, but my shooter got a dirty pole
Don't leave a witness on the scene, that's a murder quote
Witnessed my man turn to a fiend, that shit hurt my soul

And I need to change the way that I'm living
The way that I'm living
I need to change the way that I'm living, oh
The way that I'm living
