

Feeling Inside

JayDaYoungan

(The Heroz)

Turn off my phone, get in my zone, wanna be alone
I ain't feelin' the vibe
They seem to call my phone when things go wrong
But they don't never think to ask me, am I feelin' alright?
Tryna continue to stay strong, but they don't know what's goin'
on
So they can't help the way I'm feelin' inside
My nigga, he been gone for so long, the judge ain't wanna send him home
He rather give him some time

And I been on another low, my foot been on the pedal
Been doin' this shit, acapella, been dancin' with the devil
I treat you like I needed you, how could you ask for better?
They ain't see what I see in you, to me, you just so special
Stay down until you come up, would've copped you a new bezel
Used to lay down until the sun up, you was cold, I was yo' swea ter
Remember I ain't had my funds up, wishin' I had a new Tesla
Don't ever wanna get a slums up, but I go to do better

Tryna start me a riot (A riot)
Can't fit in my pocket, but it's right here on side me (On side of me)
Shoutout all his bodies, tryna catch him a body (A body)
Try me, he gon' slide, and no, he don't need a Molly (No Molly)
Drop 'em, we get high, we gon' throw us a party

Turn off my phone, get in my zone, wanna be alone
I ain't feelin' the vibe
They seem to call my phone when things go wrong
But they don't never think to ask me, am I feelin' alright?
Tryna continue to stay strong, but they don't know what's goin'
on
So they can't help the way I'm feelin' inside
My nigga, he been gone for so long, the judge ain't wanna send him home
He rather give him some time
