

I Thought

JayDaYoungan

Uh

Been in this situation way too many times
Been trying to press and grind
I swear too much shit be on my mind
Seem like they all the same
Quick to change up on me everytime
We too old for them games
Please do not try to feed me lies
Baby your feelings that's all I wanna know
I thought you told me you'll never go yeah
You just ain't love me you meant the most yeah
I guess it's time for me to let it go
But way back my needs ya ignore the most yeah
But we don't tell em they will never know yeah
You switch up on me then I gotta go yeah
I guess it's time for me to let it go

You was all I had, through it all I swear that she was deep
Let you know you for me and every promise we made I'm a keep Feel like I'm incomplete, damn how you just take my heart and leave
Eh, how you just take my heart and leave
Baby hit the road with me come to my show yeah
Hit them all and count us down to close yeah
Since they say tide is cheap I'm feeling sure yeah
How much I really wanna tie the rope

Stop listening to them hoes
They want your position you know that's how that shit goes
Don't question me no more
I only want you shit I don't need no hoe
Gotta stay on the road
Tasting that bread I gotta get me a loaf
Tryna take care of my folks
They don't go on stop till I reach my goals

Been in this situation way too many times
Been trying to press and grind
I swear too much shit be on my mind
Seem like they all the same
Quick to change up on me everytime
We too old for them games
Please do not try to feed me lies
Baby your feelings that's all I wanna know
I thought you told me you'll never go yeah
You just ain't love me you meant the most yeah
I guess it's time for me to let it go
But way back my needs ya ignore the most yeah
But we don't tell em they will never know yeah
You switch up on me then I gotta go yeah
I guess it's time for me to let it go
