Where did you go? Feel like I've been waiting so long
Waiting so long I've been waiting all alone
I've been tryna stay so strong, tryna see where we went wrong,

Why you just can't home? Why you leave me alone? Why you ain't Sorry if I did you wrong, don't give up on me right now, tell m

Sometimes I feel like I should be without you Sometimes It feel like can't breathe without you
They fix me a plate, I can't eat without you Hop on a plane, I can't leave without you
You believe in my bae, I believe in you too
If that's what you need, let me eat on you Turn around girl, please let me beat it up too
But why did you go? Now I've been waiting all day by the door Told you I was done fucking around with them hoes, told you I w as done fucking around with the bros I'm tryna hold on, I ain't letting you go, I'm hurting inside a nd I need you close To tell you the truth, girl, you mean the most , I think it's s omethin' you need to know

I want this forever with you, I'll do whatever for you I'll fight with the Devil for you, You're somethin' I never wan
' lose
But when you leave me confused, where you at? I've been lookin' for you
Where you at? I've been lookin' for you, Where you at? I've bee n lookin' for you
I've been waiting for you by the door, I've been waiting for yo u by the door

Where did you go? Feel like I've been waiting so long
Waiting so long I've been waiting all alone
I've been tryna stay so strong, tryna see where we went wrong,
