JayDaYoungan

God sent me an angel just to wipe all the tears away
They wishing to see me fall down so they can take my place
Just looking for better days get on my knees and pray
Keep faith and stay humble and one day it's gon be okay
Wake up and I'm thinking bout every way I can go get it
Concentration and motivation I gotta stay with it
Nobody was with me when I needed them to be with me
Nobody believed in me just all of my day went left

Up late night [?]

These niggas don't like me I'm clutching my heater
Bitch we ain the same know you ain my equal
I stay in my lane I don't fuck with these people
I walk through the rain my heart steady bleeding
Yeah they gonna change I swear they gonna leave you Don't fall for them lies that they tryna feed you
You live and you learn everyday like a teacher
They on some hating shit I'm waiting patiently
I know one day it's gonna be my time
I use them xans just to clear my mind
They don't understand how I feel at times
In love with white faces yeah I'm some racist shit
I'll do anything just to shine
Lil nigga better not try to fuck on mine
I know some people who really ride
Remember the past I was doing bad was down to my last they ain give me e nothing
But now they look sad cuz I got a bag fell in love with cash just want the money
Can't fuck with new friends RuffWayy til the end

Turnt they back when I needed them but claiming they fuck with me
Just thanking the lord for put me up in this position
They ain really with me yeah I had to just pay attention

God sent me an angel just to wipe all the tears away
They wishing to see me fall down so they can take my place
Just looking for better days get on my knees and pray
Keep faith and stay humble and one day it's gon be okay
Wake up and I'm thinking bout every way I can go get it
Concentration and motivation I gotta stay with it
