

Need Me

JayDaYoungan

(The Heroz)

(Shoutout to KP for that beat)

Right now, you must need me, you calling my phone
Right now, you must need me, you won't leave me 'lone
Right now, you must need me, you calling my phone
Right now, you must need me, you won't leave me 'lone
Remember back then when everybody doubted me
Now that I got them racks in, they tryna get somethin' out of me
Did shit without the MAC-10, but they ain't give a dime to me
I turnt up for the backend, I hope my mama proud of me

I need to know what it is
Tell me right now, is you gon' keep it real?
I like to go to the field
Just to sit in the hood, that shit give me the chills (Phew)
They say ain't supposed to be there
What the fuck do you mean? That shit made who I am
My brothers waiting on the appeal
They been locked in them bars, they been stuck there for years
I been getting my mind right
I been dodging the fame, been avoiding the limelight
I been clutching my iron tight
I'ma step on a nigga whenever the time right
And I been tryna find life
'Cause lately it been feeling like I done died twice
I been left behind twice
But I ain't realize 'til the lord sent a sign twice
I'm on pure codeine, I'm moving slowly
Runtz got me choking, I fadeaway like Ginóbili
Send her heart broke emojis
Stay high, but I move lowkey
I'm fine, don't need you close to me
Stop lyin', you just need more from me

Right now, you must need me, you calling my phone
Right now, you must need me, you won't leave me 'lone
Right now, you must need me, you calling my phone
Right now, you must need me, you won't leave me 'lone
Remember back then when everybody doubted me
Now that I got them racks in, they tryna get somethin' out of me
Did shit without the MAC-10, but they ain't give a dime to me
I turnt up for the backend, I hope my mama proud of me

Mama, I'm sorry for all the shit that I did
Hope you proud I'm rich
A nigga play games, you know we splittin' his wig (Boom, boom)
And that's on my kids
I'm investing my bands, I plan on letting 'em sit
Bitch, they know I'm legit
Had to walk some lil' miles for this shit
Now it's safe to say that I am finally lit
Now let me talk, I'm preaching
Everybody fucking scheming
Everybody fucking need me
Everybody fucking leeching
Now let me talk, I'm preaching

Everybody fucking scheming
Everybody fucking need me
Everybody fucking leeching
But I know somethin' ain't right though 'cause

Right now, you must need me, you calling my phone
Right now, you must need me, you won't leave me 'lone
Right now, you must need me, you calling my phone
Right now, you must need me, you won't leave me 'lone
Remember back then when everybody doubted me
Now that I got them racks in, they tryna get somethin' out of me
Did shit without the MAC-10, but they ain't give a dime to me
I turnt up for the backend, I hope my mama proud of me
