

Jealous

Jayden Bartels

I'm biting my tongue
Cuz I cant tell you whats really wrong
All my friends writing songs
Bout how they're not jealous
But with me that's not what's going on

I don't know how you talk about me
Cuz I'm not there to see
But one thing that I know for sure
It's not the same way that you talk about her

She has your attention more than I ever will
And I know I shouldn't, but these feelings I've got to spill
She's the perfect girl in your eyes
And I know I'll never be that perfect no matter how hard I try

You look at her Like she's the most beautiful girl
And that's okay, I just didn't know you felt that way
You made me believe that you only thought about me
But I hear you words and I know you're in love with her

And maybe I am going crazy or maybe my suspicions are true
And now I'm stuck here jealous cuz all I wanted was to be with you

But, she has your attention more than I ever will
And I know I shouldn't, but these feelings I've got to spill
She's the perfect girl in your eyes
And I know I'll never be that perfect no matter how hard I try

Do you wish that I was more like her
Cuz now you're stuck with me but you want a different girl
