

Anymore

JayKae

I don't feel like I'm me anymore
For too many people I have opened doors, yeah, yeah
Wish it could be how it was before, yeah, yeah
But I've always wanted more for the more, yeah

I don't feel like I'm me anymore
All life left, you know I can't ignore
Lately, I feel like I've got it all
But I've always wanted more furthermore, yeah

I don't know what to say anymore
I don't feel like Jay anymore
I lost faith, don't pray anymore
Sirius don't play anymore
Yeah, you can try to argue with me
Or walk through the door, won't stay anymore
I don't know what day anymore
And I won't touch Yay anymore

But I pop champagne, I'm sprayin' it all
Love to you, if you came to my tour
I'm sick of those who wanna cause beef
He pops off, runs straight to the law
Yeah, you know I'm from small leaf
I got ice for days, don't pay for a draw
I win and they know the score
Still got the scales some place from before
It's raw

I don't feel like I'm me anymore
For too many people I have opened doors, yeah, yeah
Wish it could be how it was before, yeah, yeah
But I've always wanted more furthermore, yeah

I don't feel like I'm me anymore
All life left you know I can't ignore
Lately, I feel like I've got it all
But I've always wanted more furthermore, yeah

I don't know what to do anymore
And I don't trust you anymore
No, I can't go through anymore stuff
Fake love, I knew that it all was
Now I don't have a clue anymore
No one to talk to anymore
I see them and it's too bloody awkward
Better pray I don't do any war dogs, blood

'Cause I'll fuck you all up
Big dawg in a small pot, yeah
And if you want something, don't mind
And you know it's a call up
I drive automatic, I don't stall up
Hundred Zulus for the roll up
Favorites try to do a U-turn
Better beg for mercy and crawl up
Two plus more than two

You best watch who you talkin' too
Air Max when I'm walking through
The flight leaves a quarter to
They don't like me, so raw, I'm through
Who you taught 'em to?
One bar between all your mandem
It's just me an order too
What's new?

Can't mix business with pleasure
We're not in this together
Mix up like English weather
Long time, ain't seen you in never
And I hope it stays that way
I never lost sleep, got paid that day
Just remember, if you get through
Rude boy, it was me who paved that way
Too real

I don't feel like I'm me anymore
For too many people I have opened doors, yeah, yeah
Wish it could be how it was before, yeah, yeah
But I've always wanted more furthermore, yeah

I don't feel like I'm me anymore
All life left you know I can't ignore
Lately I feel like I've got it all
But I've always wanted more for the more
