

Orange Peels

Jaymay

Standing on my father's suitcase
Staring out the window
Of a boat returning from england

Watch how they float
Does anyone note
Waves on the water

Waves from a daughter
Gazing out the window
Spying orange peels

I wonder as i slumber
What do dreams really reveal?
Cause if they are fright'nin
The nightmare's really real

I'll exquisite day you, buddy
If you don't get down off that bag
Right now

Standing on my father's suitcase
Staring out the window
Of a boat returning from england

Watch how they flow
Does anyone know
Waves underwater

Waves from a daughter
Gazing out the window
Spying orange peels

All and all for one
