Don't move your mouth
It's useless to talk
It's useless to talk to a wall

Don't move your legs
It's useless to walk
It's useless to walk if you fall

And when alls said and done
We hit and we run
We hit and we run away

When alls said and done
It's really no fun
It's realy no fun . . .

So don't move your mouth
It's useless to talk
It's useless to talk through the wall

And don't move your legs
'Cause you can't seem to walk
No you can't walk if you fall

And when alls said and done
We hit and we run
We hit and we run away

When alls said and done
It's really no fun
It's realy no fun at all
