Moondust (Stripped)

Jaymes Young

I'm building this house on the moon
Like a lost astronaut
Looking at you like a star
From a place the world forgot
And there's nothing that I can do
Except bury my love for you

The brightness of the sun will give me just enough
To bury my love in the moon dust
I long to hear your voice but still I make the choice
To bury my love in the moon dust

Nothing can breathe in the space
Colder than the darkest sea
I have dreams about the days driving through your sunset breeze
And the first thing that I will do
Is bury my love for you

The brightness of the sun will give me just enough
To bury my love in the moon dust
I long to hear your voice but still I make the choice
To bury my love in the moon dust

I'm a castaway and men reap what they sow
And I say what I know to be true
I'm living far away on the face of the moon
I've buried my love to give the world to you

The brightness of the sun will give me just enough
To bury my love in the moon dust
I long to hear your voice but still I make the choice
To bury my love in the moon dust
