

We live a life of bits and bytes
Where we unite, is in the ... life
...and speak our rights
I'm sitting next to you, let's have a conversation
Yeah, yeah, I know ok, this is a brand new day
We share a common past the world is moving faster
I miss the personal touch, without abbreviations
I dedicate the song to all the human nation

I am I, you and I, remember when we took the time
We made a plan to break away
To get together and celebrate, celebrate
I rather look into your eyes, and feel the connection
Share the rhythm and the rhyme
And watch your expression
I rather look into your eyes and see my reflection
Share the rhythm and the rhyme and make an impression
And make an impression

I see us, HDD, URL and... agb NAT if you're confused read about on my BLOG
