

Make Up

Jazzy

Every morning I wake up
I put on my makeup
Get ready to take on
The rest of the world

My heels are clicking
My hips are shaking
It's there for the taking
The rest of the world

There's a fire
That I'm feeding
As I'm reaching my desire
The days are getting brighter

And they call it
Love
I don't need no explanation
You don't meet my expectation, no

Every morning I wake up
I put on my makeup
Get ready to take on
The rest of the world

My heels are clicking
My hips are shaking
It's there for the taking
The rest of the world

There's a fire
That I'm feeding
As I'm reaching my desire
The days are getting brighter

And they call it
Love
I don't need no explanation
You don't meet my expectation, no

Every morning I wake up
I put on my makeup
Get ready to take on
The rest of the world

My heels are clicking
My hips are shaking
It's there for the taking
The rest of the world

There's a fire
That I'm feeding
As I'm reaching my desire
The days are getting brighter

And they call it

I don't need no explanation
You don't meet my expectation, no

Every morning I wake up
Get ready to take on

My heels are clicking
My hips are shaking

There's a fire
