

Brown Eyes

JBEE

I'm rising up, keep smilin'
That's what makes my mind go wild
Brown eyes and a cute smile
That's what makes my mind go wild
(I-I-I-I-I love Chris Rich)
Yo, look

Put faith in a bitch 'cause my feelings huts
When I could've fucked so many tings
I was chasing you and I should've got turned It's bad when I'm in a fuck with a kid
'Cause she thinks I'ma buy of purse
Fuck that, man, D.T.B.
Can tell with the pain that I put in my verse
You were the reason the bitch got burned
5am, I ain't had no sleep, since the heartbrake I've been feeling worse
I ain't had no luck with love, this shit feel like I'm under a curse
This shit keeps happening over and over
So much faith that I've turned into a loner
I don't know why she dumb and wrong
I've been hoping to find some clouser

Could've been you and I
Gave you my time and you wasted mine
So many times you're out of line
You were showing red flags on the regular
I decided not to take that sign
And I 'm missing the way you whine
That's what makes my mind go wild
Could've been you and I
Gave you my time and you wasted mine
So many times you're out of line
You were showing red flags on the regular
I decided not to take that sign
And I 'm missing the way you whine
That's what makes my mind go wild

(On my love)

And you promised to keep it real, but you never helded down, huh
I was showing you off the mandem, now I'm regretting I had you around
Ever since you left, evry day of the week, I've been chasing pound
This year I'ma get to the bag, any bad energy gotta get cut
Now I'm trying to heal, so I'm moving on
It's therapeutic when I'm writing songs
And I tried to forgive you again, but you wouldn't right your wrongs
You were busy playing games at Bardstown
Why the hell would you lead me on?
Should have told me the thrut from the start, but you were taking wa too lon
