

One more shot 'cause
I feel like you're up to somethin'
Fuck that, you're up to somethin'
Scandalous (HARGO production)
Taste my bitter heart, I know it makes you blush (Yo)
But (Look)

My whole life on my own, I've been putting in work
Gotta thank God for the L's and wins
No lie, that could've been worse
The bread come second, the hoes come third
No cap, put the gang and the family first
I never trusted a bitch since birth
Nearly forgot it was DTB
I learned the hard way when she hurts me first (Yo)

Been a year and, but since 4am and I still ain't sleepin' well
Sometimes I feel like I'm trapped inside
But I need me a mill', fuck seeking help
Gotta make sure that the family's straight
Then I'ma pattern my mental health
Grind, sleep, wake up and repeat (Yo, look)
Trapped in the hood like I'm locked in jail (Yo)
Me and bro like meech and tee
We take risks for the fam, cah we playin' for keeps
6am, I ain't had no rest
I can't remember last time I had some sleep
I'm tryna slide on beats whiles bro's outside on the block tryna glide and b eat
If I never went ghost and wrote that song
Than I woulda sold dope like Cane and Riq (Yo, look)

My whole life on my own, I've been putting in work
Gotta thank God for the L's and wins
No lie, that could've been worse
The bread come second, the hoes come third
No cap, put the gang and the family first
I never trusted a bitch since birth
Nearly forgot it was DTB
I learned the hard way when she hurts me first (Yo)

(Gang-gang) Gangster don't cry
So I'm tryin' my hardest to keep it G
I'm scared by shit in the past
I lost my heart when I turned fifteen
All of these girls just leave me and go
I feel like I'm stuck in the same routine
Last bitch that I thought I loved
I got blocked, now my text go green (Yo)
I'm DTB and she's DTN, that was the perfect blend, huh
Never wanted to fall in love, I just wanted a female friend
I'm playing my cards right close to my chest
I don't wanna get broken again
But I got taken for a Jocker, lost my queen (Yo)
And that's how the story ends (Look)

My whole life on my own, I've been putting in work

Gotta thank God for the L's and wins
No lie, that could've been worse
The bread come second, the hoes come third
No cap, put the gang and the family first
I never trusted a bitch since birth
Nearly forgot it was DTB
I learned the hard way when she hurts me first

My whole life on my own, I've been putting in work
Gotta thank God for the L's and wins
No lie, that could've been worse
The bread come second, the hoes come third
No cap, put the gang and the family first
I never trusted a bitch since birth
Nearly forgot it was DTB
I learned the hard way when she hurts me first

Well, the phrase "DTB" has gained popularity in recent years particularly among young people on social media
"DTB" stands for "Don't Trust Bitches" (HARGO production)
And it's often used as a way to express readiness
