

Until Yesterday

JC Chasez

Yeah...

Ohhh

I found a letter on my dresser last night
About a baby on the way
It made me suspicious of another guy cause
You couldn't tell me to my face

And so I asked to find out if I was right
That's when your eyes filled up with rage
Now nine months go by
The baby's not my blood type
Look what a mess you made

You know I loved you so much
Girl I would never hurt you

But if you play with fire then you'll get burned
When will you learn?
Now it's your turn
Remember all the lies you sold me
Made me feel so sad and lonely
Now your fairytale's unfolding
Nothing left to say
Cause I loved you all the way
Until Yesterday
Ohhhhhh until yesterday

Damn, well can you help me understand?
Why you would keep me while you're sexin with another man
Was it just a one-night stand?
Or was it something far more grand than what we had cause...

You know I loved you much
I know your daddy taught you better

But if you play with fire then you'll get burned
When will you learn?
Now it's your turn
Remember all the lies you sold me
Made me feel so sad and lonely
Now your fairytale's unfolding
Cause I loved you all the way
Until Yesterday
Ohhhhhh until yesterday

You know I loved you so much
Ohhh your daddy should have taught you better...

But if you play with fire then you'll get burned
When will you learn?
Now it's your turn
Remember all the lies you sold me
Made me feel so sad and lonely
Now your fairytale's unfolding

Cause I loved you all the way
Until Yesterday
Ohhhhh until yesterday

I loved you all the way until yesterday

Remember all the lies you sold me
Made me feel so sad and lonely
Now your fairytale's unfolding
Cause I loved you all the way

All the way until yesterday
