

Can't Stop

JC Stewart

I know you're hurting
I'm hurting too
It's a vicious cycle
We're both going through
I've tried to reason
You've tried it too
But I'm overthinking
And you're over feeling blue

So what we gonna do about it
I can't stop loving you
What we gonna do
I mean, I could try but I don't want to

She's holding the cards
I'm losing her hand
She's find it hard
I'm out of demands
She's walking the streets
Trying not to cry
I know I'm the cause
But I don't know why
She's digging our grave
I'm trying not to die
Oh, she said she forgave me only last night
She's going to leave I'm meant to put up a fight
Yeah, I'm trying my best
But it's coming out bye bye

So what we gonna do about it
I can't stop loving you
What we gonna do
I mean, I could try but I don't want to
So what we gonna do about it
I can't stop loving you
What we gonna do
I mean, I could try but I don't want to

So what we gonna do about it
I can't stop loving you
What we gonna do
I mean, I could try but I don't want to
So what we gonna do about it
I can't stop loving you
What we gonna do
I mean, I could try but I don't want to
