

Scars

JC Stewart

I wear my scars like diamonds on a bracelet
They hurt like hell, but damn, it feels amazin'

I used to think that I was only good for heartbreak
Had them playin' in my head for way too long
I said I didn't care, I did and it got ugly
But now I'm back [?] and I'm getting pretty strong

Yeah, so, I've been feelin' good these days
There's nothing getting in my way, so

I wear my scars like diamonds on a bracelet
They hurt like hell, but they're the ones that made me
I wear my scars and the stories that they're paintin'
They hurt like hell, but damn, it feels amazin'

La, la-la-la-la, la-la-la-la, la-la-la-la

I spent way too long regrettin' my mistakes now
I had them rulin' every day and every night
I wanted to open my eyes, I didn't know how
But now I'm on my feet, I'm back in the fight

Yeah, so, I've been feelin' good these days
There's nothing getting in my way, so

I wear my scars like diamonds on a bracelet
They hurt like hell, but they're the ones that made me
I wear my scars and the stories that they're paintin'
They hurt like hell, but damn, it feels amazin'

La, la-la-la-la, la-la-la-la, la-la-la-la

I wear my scars like diamonds on a bracelet
They hurt like hell, but they're the ones that made me
I wear my scars and the stories that they're paintin'
They hurt like hell, but damn, it feels amazin'

Who wants to die without scars anyway, anyway
Who wants to die without scars anyway, anyway

I wear my scars like diamonds on a bracelet
They hurt like hell, but damn, it feels amazin'
