

Promised me you were worth the trouble
Now I'm breathing smoke and rubble
Wish you understood
Like I thought you could
Like I thought we were one and another
You were simply undercover
Wish you understood
Like I thought you could

Now I'm chasing tails round broken bottles
Out of mind, but not forgotten
Were you just a waste of my love
Were you just a waste of my love

I drew a line and you crossed it
I gave you time and crossed
Were you just a waste of my love
Just a bitter taste on my tongue
I drew a line and you crossed it

Wonder where you're sleeping now
Wonder if you're keeping count
With someone new
Like we used to do
Cause I'm still out here missing something
It's like a part of me's still running right back to you
Right back to you

Now I'm chasing tails round broken bottles
Out of mind, but not forgotten
Were you just a waste of my love
Were you just a waste of my love

I drew a line and you crossed it
I gave you time and crossed
Were you just a waste of my love
Just a bitter taste on my tongue
I drew a line and you crossed it

I drew a line and you crossed it
I gave you time and crossed
Were you just a waste of my love
Just a bitter taste on my tongue
I drew a line and you crossed it
