You saw my dreams and you saw your face
Like, no way
Every time, I come around
You-

You saw my dreams and you saw your face
Like, no way
Every time I come around (You-you-way)
You saw my dreams and you saw your face
Like, no way
Every time I come around (You-you-way)
You saw my dreams and you saw your face
Like, no way
Every time I come around (You-you-way)
You saw my dreams and you saw my dreams
And like, no way
Way, way, way, way-way-way-way-way-way-way
You-You

Ain't it obvious that I'm on the run?
My bones paper thin, get you paper cut
Sitting sideways on the highway
My face full of blue diamonds, mane
I might lane switch
Mane, I might fake death
Mane, I might say less
Mane, I might jump up outta plane
With my main bitch

You saw my dreams and you saw your face
Like, no way
Every time I come around (You-you-way)
You saw my dreams and you saw your face
Like, no way
Every time I come around (You-you-way)
You saw my dreams and you saw your face
Like, no way
Every time I come around (You-you-way)
You saw my dreams and you saw my dreams
And like, no way
Way, way, way, way-way-way-way-way-way-way
You-You

Boy, oh, boy, I'm just a boy
Inside your dreams, I'm all you need
I got this
Sitting in your subconscious
Boy, oh, boy, I'm just a boy
Inside your dreams, I'm all you need
I got this
Sitting in your subconscious

You saw my dreams and you saw your face
Like, no way
Every time I come around (You-you-way)
You saw my dreams and you saw your face
Like, no way

Every time I come around (You-you-way)
You saw my dreams and you saw your face
Like, no way
Every time I come around (You-you-way)
You saw my dreams and you saw my dreams
And like, no way
Way, way, way, way-way-way-way-way-way
