

Darlin'

Jean Dawson

Darlin'
If I die would you bring me flowers often
Hmm darlin'
Darlin'
If I killed a man would you buy the coffin
Hmm darlin'

Do you like flowers
As much as I do
I doubt
If the sky loses its blue
I'll bury myself alive
Water my bones with light
Darlin'

Darlin'
Would you point this gun at who trying to hurt me
Would you rob this bank blind
I would die for you
And cry for you
But I'm your baby

Do you like flowers
As much as I do
I doubt
If the sky loses its blue
I'll bury myself alive
Water my bones with light
Darlin'

If I die again
Would you bring me flowers
Gun in my hand
I have superpowers
Take these flowers six feet downwards

Do you like flowers
As much as I do
I doubt
If the sky loses its blue
I'll bury myself alive
Water my bones with light
