Dummy

Jean Dawson

I'm not going to sleep to wait if I die
I'm not living a dream awake at night
This isn't a nightmare
This isn't a nightmare

Stay or sleep walk, my strut straight fade
Hate all people, I mean I only need my space
It's 3: 05, I ride when it's dark outside
I'm a midnight child

I'm not going to sleep to wait if I die
I'm not living a dream awake at night
This isn't a nightmare
This isn't a nightmare

Sugar rush, how do you love?
Sun isn't up, niggas on the run
Niggas on the run

You don't see my face, I don't see a case, uh
Catch you slipping in the night, I be awake
Creeping, crawling until morning
Slither down your block, I'm on it, I'm on it

I'm not going to sleep to wait if I die
I'm not living a dream awake at night
This isn't a nightmare
This isn't a nightmare
