

The Boy And The Swan

Jean Dawson

All my life I'll try flying
Hard I try I'm your only falling

Hit the floor
Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home right here
Hit the floor
Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home right here
Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home right here

Sometimes I feel like living lies
Golden smile, grins of sacrifice
'Cause in your arms I feel at home
And in my arms, you're at home

Blueberry seeds in my teeth while I dance under trees
I just whispered to birds to sing all of your dreams
We're just falling asleep
We're just falling asleep

Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home right here
Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home right here

All my life I'll try flying
Hard I try I'm your only falling

Hit the floor
Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home right here
Hit the floor
Feel like home
Feel like home
Feel like home right here
Feel like home
Feel like home
