

You're Bleeding Everywhere

Jean Dawson

Blurry eyes
I can see nothing I'm looking with burning eyes
Blurry I'm spinning and time is so liquefied
I'm down the drain and that's when I feel alive
Turn the day into midnight

I'm inside out
Heart upside down
My lungs all smoke
My spine spills out
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
And I'm

I can see nothing I'm looking with burning eyes
Blurry I'm spinning and time is so liquefied
I'm down the drain and that's when I feel alive
Turn the day into midnight

I'm inside out
Heart upside down
My lungs all smoke
My spine spills out
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling

I'm inside out
Heart upside down
My lungs all smoke
My spine spills out
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
And I'm

Stumbling finding my way out
I'm going way out
Shadows of cover my face
I'm solo I'm blurry
I'm so low buried

Stumbling finding my way out
I'm going way out
Shadows of cover my face
I'm solo I'm blurry
I'm so low buried

Stumbling finding my way out
I'm going way out
I'm solo I'm blurry

I'm so low buried

I'm inside out
Heart upside down
My lungs all smoke
My spine spills out
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
And I'm

And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
And I'm falling apart
