

Break Time

Jean Deaux

Manifest the plays
Make sumn shake
I get it plenty of ways
Pull up boys hold my weight
Kickback got the sweetest taste
Hold up, wait
Do I play?
I don't know, fuck out my face

And I'm gon bless him, merci
But after I kill, I am not showing mercy
She wanna show me a peek
Okay I see
Lil mama gon waive on her fee
I got the world at my feet
I'm moving mountains
Not even a inch, but with speech

You gonna hear me now
Turn up I spazz, spread the good feelings round
Of course I matter clown
And I am mass but going thru ceilings now
Vomit boys, throw up the cash
Watch the blue spin around
Not talking my spinners
They been around
I'm building up people that's broken down
You shitting on people with small amounts

I just left the Z, seen my tray
It's gon' be mine
I don't chat to space
No dossiers on my break time
Bitch I'm with my dogs, make sumn shake
You should be wise
I talk to God every day, she stay right on the main line

Had him catchin z's, that's my bae
He gon' be mine
Almost caught a case
No dossiers on my break time
Bitch I am the plug
On the lake, water sells fine
I talk to God every day, she stay right on the main line

Heatin up, cookin up
Drippin down sticky stuff
I heard he wanna really fuck
Niggas drunk, that's enough
They want to beat but not big enough
But I ain't pressed for numbers record stuff
I wanna shut it down/break it up
Come thru and shut it down, rake it up
Yo BD fine and I'm draking tough
We wanna break up the mold
Like we all been here before
I'm spitting missiles and limitless snow

Lil niggas frivolous, clearing they throat
Hold on whoa better not choke
Lungs better hold if you asking for smoke
Them lungs better hold if you asking for smoke

I just left the Z, seen my tray
It's gon' be mine
I don't chat to space
No dossiers on my break time
Bitch I'm with my dogs, make sumn shake
You should be wise
I talk to God every day, she stay right on the main line

Had him catchin z's, that's my bae
He gon' be mine
Almost caught a case
No dossiers on my break time
Bitch I am the plug
On the lake, water sells fine
I talk to God every day, she stay right on the main line

I float on that bassline
Vibrating from my waist
Henny straight, wanna taste mine?
Lil baby gon' call me up
He wanna face time
I tippy toe'd out the party
Mami gon' make time

I just left the Z, seen my tray
It's gon' be mine
I don't chat to space
No dossiers on my break time
Bitch I'm with my dogs, make sumn shake
You should be wise
I talk to God every day, she stay right on the main line

Had him catchin z's, that's my bae
