

Everybody ridin' (Dirtily)
Drownin' like Poseidon (Currently)
They come out of hidin' (Suddenly)
Where you at? We're frightened (Hurry please)
Everybody ridin' (Dirtily)
Drownin' but survivin' (Currently)
I could take my time but [?]
You never know the time (Godspeed, you could never terrorize me)

Who could lose a life for a traffic light?
Am I steppin' out for sacrifice?
Whole week, my start up wasn't actin' right
Now my body down the stream, on the blackest night
It could be a hooptie or a Mercedes (Mercedes)
These muhfuckas still try to play me
Night crawlers lurkin', all sons of Hades (Hades)
That's why they weapon never knew no safety

We go to fuck up the bar
If I go broke, I'ma just reup tomorrow
They try to boot up the car
I pay it off, they tried to shoot up the car
Two in the mornin', the bullets is flyin' on open roads, that's very bizarre
Au revoir, skin grazed
'Cause the weed burnt, from this sweet cigar
Hell bent, and my hands raised
'Cause them silent palms still talk to God
Here or home bound, that's West bound, if they spare the rod
Sirens put me to sleep
Blue lights slow my achin' breath
I feel like screamin' but there's hollow creeks inside my chest
No use of yellin' at the wall, when the foundation deaf
We gotta mutilate the bricks until we see the ground is left
Thief in the night, they found a shadow there that never slept
My brother be over kept
Streetlights can be overstepped
Understand when the quiet comes, all we hear is death
