

TWUG (That's What U Get)

Jean Deaux

Don't ruin the fun now
If you get too high, you'll hate it coming down
Need to know basis, but you're still my baby
'Cause when it's shaky, we ain't falling out
And I got feeling that I can't announce
But this chemistry is too pronounced
If you need a shoulder, maybe I'm not the best

I can't save you. Guess, I'm the villain now
Watch how you're talking to me
Don't make that shit a habit
Stop fucking playing with me
If I start holding on you
I might become an addict
Watch what you're saying to me
You feel it meaning something
I bet you wanna know what is burning me up
A perfect world won't be as beautiful
I'd tell you more
But I've been here before
I never break the code
Rather let it flow
If it ain't shit to lose. Yeah
Then it ain't much to prove
Ain't no rush
Ain't no rush

Since I met you, been my baby
Right now
Since I took you down
I wake up like I know
I know what you're thinking 'bout now
That I'm 'a break you down
That's what you get for thinking
Thinking I'm 'a break you down
