

Midnight

Jeangu Macrooy

Hold me close
I need desire
Hot as a flame I burn
Fighting against the cold
No one knows
What the future holds
But if I catch a glance
I hope I'll see you there
Say you won't walk away

When tomorrow is as far away as yesterday
When moonless skies and my restless mind keep me awake
When it's too dark to see a reason to go on
Will you be there?
When midnight falls
Over me

There's no such thing
As perfect love
We're doing the best we can
Trying to move ahead
Pointless doubt
Tortures me
But I'm not giving up
'Cause I believe in us
Say you won't walk away

When tomorrow is as far away as yesterday
When moonless skies and my restless mind keep me awake
When it's too dark to see a reason to go on
Will you be there?
When midnight falls
Will you be here?
When midnight falls over me

When tomorrow is as far away as yesterday
When moonless skies and my restless mind keep me awake
When it's too dark to see a reason to go on
Will you be there?
When midnight falls
Will you be here?
When midnight falls over me
