

Enough to Lie

Jeannie Seely

[Verse 1]

You don't listen
Even when I begged you not to leave
You don't hear what I'm saying
'Cause you're paying no attention to me
And when you come home
After being gone
You have no alibi
'Cause you don't even care enough to lie

[Chorus]

Would it take you very long
To even notice I was gone?
If sometime I wasn't here when you came home

You know I know
Where you go
But you don't try to hide
'Cause you don't even care enough to lie

[Chorus]

Would it take you very long
To notice I was gone?
If sometime I wasn't here when you came home
You know I know
Where you go
But you don't try to hide
'Cause you don't even care enough to lie
No, you don't even care enough to lie
